Nonn Sewer Problems Caused By Own Tap-On

Bend In Connection Resulted In Backups From City Trunk Sewer

Alderman Walter Nonn's sewer trouble at his home was not the fault of the city, it was learned Friday.

Replacement of 33 feet of the connection line was completed Friday afternoon by a local private contractor, who told the Press-Record he found a "slight bend" in one of the sections of pipe.

"This caused water from the city sewer line to flow back into the connection line," the contractor, Walter Reutzel, explained.

The bend was in the last section of the four-inch connector pipe before it reached the city sewer in the alley.

The work last week was in Nonn's backyard at his brick home, 2711 Cuyana street, explained the contractor, whose office is at 2412 Pontiac road, said the project was contracted by Nonn.

During council sessions prior to the master sewer, drainage and pollution abatement vote, Nonn proclaimed often that he had no sewer problem in his Fifth Ward.

However, frequent visits to his home by street department sewer crews was disclosed in last Thursday's issue, and it was stressed the visits were required because of backups caused by the "inadequate city sewers."

Supt. of Streets William Warfield said the street department has cleared hundreds of individual sewer connections and he said 90% of the trouble was due to the inability of city sewers to carry off sewage.

Anchorage Apartments Not Yet Ready For Use

The contractor has not yet completed the first group of Anchorage apartments for the elderly, necessitating postponement of the initial occupancy target date, which had been set for today.

David W. Morgan, Granite City Housing Authority, said a notice of the anticipated March 18 completion rate sent to the authority had made it necessary for him to contact the first 24 applicants and advise them they were not ready to move in today.

However, the completion date had not been met, and the estimated date was given. Adverse weather is the major factor in the delay, he related.

The development consists of 94 one-bedroom apartments and six two-bedroom units, all reserved for senior citizens.

Venice To Test Mercury St. Lights

Polling Places Set For City's April 16 Vote For 4 Aldermen

Mercury vapor street lighting units will be installed in Venice on a trial basis in the near future, Mayor John E. Lee told aldermen at the city council meeting Friday night.

Mayor Lee asked First Ward Alderman James Miller, chairman, and other members of the city lighting committee to meet and select locations for four trial units to be installed by Illinois Power Co.

The mayor said he has discussed the project with Carl E. Mathias, service area manager for the utility company. The trial installation will be without charge to the city.

Alderman Miller said his committee will select two trial installation sites in South Venice and two in North Venice. The power company will be informed of the locations as soon as they are chosen, he said.

Election Preparations

The council also set polling places and named judges for the April 16 municipal election. Balloting will be for four aldermanic seats.

First Ward, city hall, Broadway at Klein street, Second Ward, 1109 Russell street, Third Ward, and 107 Weaver street, Fourth Ward.

Billings and claims approved by the council included McKinley Bridge Revenue Fund payments of $14,225 to G. H. Sternberg & Co. and $10,000 to Architect Virg H. Dulgeroff.

The claims were for final payments on the new city clerk William Ebersold called the council's attention to removal of street poles along Broadway by Southwestern Bell Telephone Co.

His said the telephone company says Illinois Power Co. poles, and removal of the extra poles will enhance the appearance of the street. Removal began last week.

Student Officials

Four Venice high school students, among those elected by their classmates as mock city officials Feb. 20, attended the meeting as spectators.

They were Virginia Koelker, student mayor; Mary Margaret Carson, clerk; Nancy Seattum, treasurer; and Michael Lopez, police magistrate.

Mayor Lee welcomed the students to the meeting, and called upon each to introduce himself or herself to the council. He also praised frequently during the session to explain to the students the action in progress.

The mayor asked the council to open the city to the public for a week.

Says Alderman Marked, Signed Woman's Ballot

In a letter written last week to the Press-Record, Mrs. Betty Bird, 2237 Ohio avenue, has charged that Fifth Ward Alderman Walter Nonn "came to my home, marked my ballot and signed it."

Nonn then took the ballot with him to an election about two years ago.

The charge was substantiated by her father, Joe Rigby, also of the Ohio avenue address, who said he witnessed the marking and signing of the absentee ballot.

A denial was made yesterday by the alderman.

Mrs. Bird said that Nonn came to her house to see if he could make arrangements for her to be taken to vote in a coming election. He asked me about it and I told him I was working 16 hours a day on the election day. I was working in St. Louis, and was to be at work before 6 a.m. returning home about 1 a.m. the next day.

LUCKY BREAK. Fred Rezer displays a heavy piece of steel spring which broke from a truck he was meeting and was hurled through the windshield of his auto. The vehicle's steering wheel was crushed into Rezer's chest by the force of the flying steel, but he escaped without a scratch.

Driver Escapes Injury Auto Ripped By Flying Steel In Freak Mishap On Highway

A Granite City man escaped without a scratch Thursday night in a freak highway accident which might have cost him his life.

Fred Rezer, 28, of 3315 Franklin avenue, was driving north on U.S. 67a about two miles north of the U.S. Bypass 66-104 intersection when the end of a lead spring on a huge truck he was meeting broke off and smashed through the windshield of his auto.

The heavy piece of steel, about a foot long and four inches wide, crashed into the steering wheel, shoving Rezer into the roof and knocked out the auto's dome light, tore a hole in the headliner and ripped into the back seat.

"Flattered" Inside Auto

"I couldn't see what it was," Rezer said, "but I knew it was something heavy. It fluttered around inside the car and I didn't know what was going to happen."

Rezer stopped, turned around and caught the truck. The driver, employed by a St. Louis petroleum firm, said he heard a noise but had no idea what had happened. He said his insurance would pay for damages.

Rezer, an employee of the Dow Metal Products Corp. in Madison, said he was pinned in his seat momentarily by the crushing force of the steel. He said the truck searched about 15 minutes before finding the piece of steel, which had finally come to rest under the rear seat.

"I was driving about 60 miles per hour," Rezer said, "and I didn't know what had happened. When I thought about it now, it's kind of scary."

Special Procedure

Opponents to the added fee contract contend a special procedure must be followed if a resolution to enter the contract is to be approved legally. It must be introduced either by one of them or by Alderman Edmund Bartoski, who was absent when the last roll call on the contract was taken.

That was three weeks ago when Bartoski, a member of the special emergency pollution study committee, was in the hospital for an emergency appendectomy.

Contract opponents say the issue is dead, since it failed to receive proper approval twice. During both earlier votes, a majority of aldermen favored it, but the emergency procedure, it is probable the resolution will be adopted by the majority.

AN APPEAL TO REASON

And they shall turn away their ears from the truth, and shall be turned unto fables. —(II Tim. 4:3-4).

To inform the mind of the people, and to follow their will is the chief duty of those placed at their head. —Jefferson.

If it were within the means of those who raise their voices against the crime of fluoridation, to communicate their knowledge to the people, there would be no question concerning their reaction. It would be that of indignant outrage.

Knowing that both sides of the story had not been presented to the people, certain Granite City Aldermen sought out the facts and subsequently voted against fluoridation of our water supply. It is to the credit of these men who, even in the face of public condemnation by proponents of this measure, cast their ballot of disapproval. History will prove the wisdom of this choice because only history will reveal the long-range effects of this potent, unpredictable poison on all elements of the human family.

Think for a moment! Does it make sense that a chemical, proven to be deadlier than arsenic, can be so selective and discriminating that, when taken in any dosage, will single out only the teeth to perform its purported mission? Think about the elderly people whose capability for tolerating this poison may be slight. And who will pay the freight for the added expense of equipment installation and operation? You know what! And what percentage of this fluoridated water is actually consumed by children and what is the cost ratio? In Lawrence, Kansas, for instance, it has been estimated that for every $900.00 spent within a six year period, only $9.37 worth of medication was accorded children under 12.

There is sharp disagreement within both the dental and particularly the medical professions concerning fluoridation. Yet, you the people hear only what the proponents have to say... and on top of that, they are given the privilege of free exercise of their vocal arrangements without having to bear the monetary cost of such privileges. They get free and widespread coverage through the communications media. If there is sharp disagreement within the ranks of these professions, where is the lack of discussion from within these ranks? If it is there but you'll rarely hear it. The economic hazards are too severe to risk.

Weigh and ponder this proposition carefully, keeping in mind a resolution that we will never make the mistake of bartering away personal freedom of yourself... or your neighbor!

Industries Here Support Proposed Railroad Merger

Officials of both the Granite City Steel Co. and General Steel Industries voiced approval Friday of a proposed merger between the New York central and Pennsylvania railroads.

W. J. Edmonds, general traffic manager for Granite City Steel, said he felt such a move would allow the resulting railroad to become more stable economically.

His view was supported by Roy H. Kranz, traffic manager at General Steel Industries here.

"The railroads are not making a return necessary to have a strong plant," Edmonds said. "We feel such a merger would strengthen them and result in better service."

Kranz said he believes joining the existing railroads would result in better shipping facilities. "We're looking for the combining of the two railroads to offer improvements," he said.

Both Edmonds and Kranz appeared at an Interstate Commerce Commission hearing on the proposed merger Thursday in St. Louis. The one-day regional session was conducted by ICC examiner Jerome K. Lyle.

Further Hearings Set
Further regional hearings are scheduled at Logansport, Ind., today and at Syracuse, N. Y., Thursday.

Hearings will be resumed at Washington, D. C., next Monday. More than two months of hearings in Washington as well as in other parts of the nation preceded the St. Louis meeting.

Edmonds and Kranz, along with representatives of other industries which are large rail shippers, stated their approval of the merger at the hearing. Witnesses were cross-examined by attorneys for the railroads and labor organizations.

Seeding against the proposed merger were city representatives from Matteson and Highland, who said such a move might mean a loss of jobs in their communities and others served by railroads involved.

For Aiding Crippled Children, Adults

Easter Seal Group Hopes To Open Treatment Center Here

If suitable facilities can be found, the Madison County Easter Seal Society is interested in opening a treatment center for crippled children and adults in the Quad-Cities.

The annual Easter Seal fund campaign now is underway with Mrs. Ernest E. Veihl in charge of campaign letters and containing for business places. Mrs. Howard Kaseberg is handling collections at schools, and Robert Moske is chairman of publicity and the annual Lily parade.

The society presently operates treatment centers at Alton and Edwardsville, and patients are accepted on referrals by physicians.

Non-Profit Organization
The organization is non-profit and assumes the responsibility of maintaining the centers through the annual Easter Seal campaign. Patients who can afford to do so pay part of the cost of treatment. However, the cost of treatments for persons who cannot pay the fee is handled through the Easter Seal campaign sale of Christmas cards, memberships and through donations from individuals, clubs, wills, bequests and benefit projects held throughout the year.

The services of the centers are available to any individual who by birth, illness or injury is deprived of usual functions of his neuro-muscular and associated skeletal system. Persons who have received treatment at the county centers include those who have poliomyelitis, cerebral palsy, multiple sclerosis, muscular dystrophy, strokes, arthritis, visual, hearing and speech difficulties and other orthopedic conditions.

The society provides speech therapy and occupational therapy at both centers and it is available to crippled children and adults on a home service basis, if necessary.

Pre-School Training
The pre-school training program is available for crippled children between the ages of three and 11 years, and there is group socialization and nursery education.

A day camp for crippled children is held each June for youngsters five to 16. The daily schedule includes sports, recreation, speech therapy, occupational therapy, physical therapy, rest, swimming, craft, dancing, music, ceramics and lunches.

The society also operates an equipment loan pool and a rehabilitation literature library.

The Madison County Easter Seal Society is a voluntary health agency which provides services to crippled children and adults regardless of age, race or religion. It is a private health and welfare agency which operates with other health and social welfare agencies in the county and does not duplicate the services of existing agencies.

The organization of volunteers administers funds contributed to crippled children and adults in the county and donates time for the care and treatment of patients. It is a member of the Illinois Association for the Crippled, Inc. and the National Society for Crippled Children and Adults, Inc.

No Infiltration Here Of Hoodlum Machines

Ben Zimring of Zimring & Sons Vending Co., 1832 State street, informed the Press-Record over the weekend that there has been no infiltration of hoodlum-owned cigarette machines in the Quad-Cities or surrounding rural areas.

The local firm has complained to Edwardsville authorities that the B&H Sales Co., East St. Louis, is running a racket by Edward "Red" Wortman, brother of gang leader Frank "Buster" Wortman, has replaced two of its machines in that city.

The three local cities have strict laws governing coin-operated vending machines. Zimring pointed out the B&H firm has operated several years in the Madison county area at places along the Collinsville road strip. The county has no licensing law on cigarette machines.

County authorities said they are keeping a close watch of the situation, but at yet no warrants have been found necessary.

Critical Of Nonn Committee Work

A statement issued today by Mrs. Gabrielle Betinec, city council member from the Seventh Ward, cited recent criticism of her committee work by Fifth Ward Alderman Walter Nonn. She said the criticism was inaccurate, and charged that Nonn himself failed to perform committee duties for which he was responsible.

"Granite City very nearly did not have its election set for April 2," Mrs. Betinec related, asking "Why?"

"Two weeks in succession Alderman Nonn was attacking Alderman Betinec unjustly and totally unnecessarily for not bringing in bids on filing cabinets. She was not the chairman of the city hall committee."

"Neither should Alderman Whitmer, another member of the same committee, have to take over in the absence of the chairman, Alderman Skubish."

"Had Alderman Nonn been tending to his own committee affairs, the ordinance committee, of which he is in charge as its chairman—had he requested the attorney to bring in the ordinance for the purchase and preparation of election supplies—there would have been no need for a special recess at the March 4 council meeting, nor would there have been need for a special meeting called for Tuesday, March 19, to take care of this most important and immediate need for the coming April 2 election."

Mrs. Laura Arnold, 91, Dies, 70 Descendants

Mrs. Laura Belle Arnold, 1605 Sycamore avenue, died at 1:45 p.m. Friday at the Madison Nursing Home. She was 91 years of age, and leaves more than 70 direct descendants in four generations.

Born at Ava, Ill., Mrs. Arnold had been a Granite City resident 45 years. She had been in declining health for several years, and had been a patient for two years at the nursing home.

Survivors include a son, Harry T. Arnold, McClure, Ill.; three daughters, Mrs. Earl (Jewell) Crazier and Mrs. Walter (Elsie) Young, Granite City, and Mrs. Oliver (Ann) Maserang, Grafton; and 20 grandchildren, 36 great-grandchildren and nine great-great-grandchildren.

Mrs. Arnold's husband, George, died in 1951.

Funeral services were conducted this afternoon at a Granite City funeral home, with interment in St. John's Cemetery.

An obituary notice appears elsewhere in this issue.

Vandals Damage Auto
Rno Zurkullen, 1341 Madison avenue, reported to police Saturday morning that vandals had pulled off the distributor wires from his auto while it was parked at 15th and State streets.

ONE-HOUR PARKING LIMIT became effective this week on the section of Madison avenue in Venice north of Market street, simultaneously with a ban on any parking on the south side of Market street between Broadway and Madison avenue. The area of Madison avenue south of the turn onto Broadway for years was cluttered with parked autos and trucks. The present neat appearance is attributed to a drive initiated by Venice city officials.

Leaving Crash Scene Charge Is Filed

A charge of leaving the scene of an accident was placed against Leslie Smith, 27, of 2659 Nameoki drive, following an accident on a tavern parking lot—Smith's Dugout on Nameoki road, and a long knife. He was freed on $72 bail.

Kahoks Face Stiffest Test At Salem Tuesday Warrior Baseballers Open March 28 With Triad; 12 Lettermen On Squad

Top-Ranked Orphans Are SS Opponents

Shades of 1961
Collinsville (26-2) and Centralia (29-1), supersectional opponents at Salem Tuesday again when the Kahoks marched through an undefeated season to the Illinois prep basketball championship, collide at Salem again tomorrow night in one of eight first-round games.

Tuesday's contest has all the ingredients of being a rematch of the 1961 first round, when the Kahoks nipped Centralia in what was sometimes called the "state title game" due to the ease with which Coach Vergil Fletcher's club outplayed their opponents at Champaign.

The Orphans will be favored tomorrow, however. Ranked No. 1 across the state for over a month, Centralia suffered its only loss in the championship game of its own holiday tourney when Belleville upset a 54-53 upset.

Centralia will not have to worry about meeting the Maroons again. Belleville was ousted from the Herin sectional by Benton, which went on to down Benton in another upset of sorts, Friday, 63-47.

Herin's 15-1 record, the poorest of any of the "Sweet Sixteen" survivors, will play Metropolis (25-4) in the West Frankfort supersectional tomorrow.

West Frankfort and Salem winners collide in the first game of the state finals at Champaign Friday afternoon, also the first high school game to be played in the new University of Illinois assembly hall.

No Trouble Friday
Sectional finals Friday proved no tough task for either the Kahoks or Orphans. Collinsville clobbered game but outlasted Jerseyville at Wood River, 75-63, while Centralia rolled past Paris at Olney, 69-50.

There were a few surprises elsewhere, however. Metropolis knocked off the fourth-ranked McLeansboro Foxes at Harrisburg, eighth-ranked York to Galesburg at Galesburg and little Geneva, the only district team to reach the supersectional level, surprised York at Hinsdale, 41-38.

Familiar names like Decatur, the defending champion, and Carver of Chicago, the 1960 winner; Waukegan, Chicago Heights Bloom and Rockford Auburn are on the survivor list, which will shrink to just eight teams Tuesday night.

Collinsville, again experiencing less difficulty with sectional opponents than it did at the regional level, surprised York Friday with a diversified attack led by Roger Bohnenstiel, Joe Brennan and Ron Matkitts, who combined for 64 of the Kahoks' 79 points.

26-Point Quarter
The shorter and less accurate Panthers stayed in the game for perhaps 12 minutes, and then folded under the grinding gears of a well-oiled Kahok offense, which seems to run more smoothly with each outing.

Jerseyville trailed by just five midway in the second quarter, but was down by 11 at halftime and outscored 26-9 in the third period.

Bohenstiel contributed 13 points in the third quarter and finished with 30. Matkitts hit 14 of his markers in the second half.

The Kahoks also threw up an ironclad and sometimes overlooked (by spectators) defense around their own basket, limiting Jerseyville to 15 field goals. Sophomore Tom Frough was the most effective Panther performer against it, getting 15 points, most of those from only one.

Centralia, playing only one game in these parts during the regular season (an 84-52 romp over Edwardsville on March 2),

Cold First Quarter
The ball wouldn't stay in the hoop for either the Kahoks or Hillsboro in the first quarter of Thursday's contest, but buckets by Guy Sheridan and Dave George enabled the Hilltoppers to grab a short-lived 7-6 lead after the two clubs had sunk only four of 27 shots between them in the first eight minutes.

Ron Matkitts began to find the range for Collinsville in the second period. He sank four straight shots as the Kahoks shot to a 26-17 halftime lead and then poured on the coal down the stretch.

Streak-shooting Joe Brennan picked the third period for his scoring spree. Thursday, whipping in seven field goals in as many tries and out-scoring the entire Topper team during that quarter.

Down by 24 points at the end of the third quarter, Coach Stein's club pulled out the all-court press in an attempt to cut the margin. But the Kahoks, hitting the open man with regularity, continued to pull away.

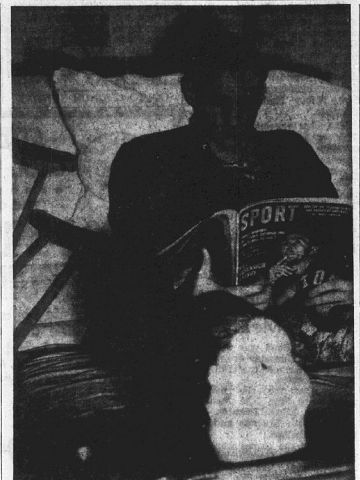

Sheridan, who gave Collinsville's tall front line real bite on the boards in the first half, fouled out with 6:20 left and George, who led all rebounders with 14 grabs, finished the game cautiously after picking up his fourth personal.

Kahoks Outrebound 1-0
The Toppers still held a 37-31 edge in rebounds. But they came nowhere close to matching Collinsville's shooting ability. Lack of size and inability to get the ball inside on Hillsboro's part left little doubt as to the game's outcome as early as the third period.

Hillsboro had to be content to pop away from outside, and finished with only 13 field goals and a 24% shooting mark. Despite a one-for-11 first quarter the Kahoks finished with a 49% average.

"We were fortunate in being able to come back so well from poor first quarter," said Fletcher as he sent word to the CHS dressing room to "hurry up" his players. "They've got to be in bed by ten," he said. "We have to come right back here tomorrow night."

The scoring: Collinsville — Brennan 22, Bohnenstiel 16, Matkitts 15, Russell 8, Cook 6, Moore 5, Soehle 2, DeMoro 0.

ON THE MEND, Granite City basketball guard Jim Proffitt peruses a sports magazine from his bed at St. Elizabeth's Hospital, where he underwent surgery for the removal of damaged cartilage from his right knee. He returned home Saturday.

Proffitt Already Looking Forward To Next Season After Knee Surgery

Jim Proffitt, this season's basketball "hard luck kid" at Granite City high school, returned home from St. Elizabeth's Hospital Saturday after undergoing surgery to repair a damaged right knee.

Doctors declared the surgery — removal of cartilage — successful, and Proffitt and his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Randall L. Proffitt, 2678 Grand avenue, quashed persistent rumors that the family was planning to move away.

Proffitt's knee — "I'd never had trouble with it before, with my ankles, yes, but not with my knee" — gave way in a contest with Belleville here on Jan. 25.

Aggravated Injury
Jim sat out a couple of games and then tried the leg again at Wood River, where he aggravated the injury further. That sidelined him until the regional, where he shot well in limited appearances but could not play his usual floor game since his lateral movement was restricted.

"A healthy Proffitt would have made a difference," Sullivan said after the Warriors had ended the season with a 70-64 loss to Alton.

The surgery he underwent is nearly identical to that performed on GCHS's George Moore, the Warriors' all-district center this year, between the 1961-62 and 1962-63 seasons. If the results are the same, Granite City could make a noise again next year in basketball circles.

"No baseball for me this spring," said Proffitt, "but I hope to be shooting on my own before school is out." Despite his injury, Proffitt led GCHS free throwers with 789, was second in assists and third in points scored during a 16-10 Warrior season.

Bowls 195 Saturday
Barbara Brown hit a 195 game in North League competition Saturday at Big Top Bowl to place her in the Granite City park 8, other girls' bowling program.

Other high North league rollers were Susan Friederich 172 and Brenda Boyles 161. Top south league scores were 152 by Joyce Short, 151 by Joyce Whittle and 143 by Sharon Waggoner.

Score by quarters:
Collinsville 6 20 27 21—74
Hillsboro 7 10 12 8—37

Carl Worthington and Bill Haven of Granite City and Jim Koelker of Venice are among 12 basketball players for Sanford-Brown Business College in St. Louis who will receive varsity letters at a basketball banquet early in April, Coach John Campbell said today.

Campbell's team, 6-12 at one stage of the season, finished with a 13-15 record and won two third-place and one second-place tournament trophies.

Worthington established a one-year scoring record at 3-8 during the season just ended. He totaled 580 points and shot 451 from the field, also the best mark on the team.

A guarded air of optimism prevails at Granite City high school concerning the outlook for Warrior baseballers, who open their 1963 spring campaign on Thursday, March 28, at Triad, weather permitting.

Coach Joe Fedora, who has already taken advantage of a couple of breaks in the weather to move his large squad out of doors, is enthusiastic about the mental attitudes of returning lettermen and aspirants.

"It's too early to tell how well they are doing," he said, "but this bunch already has more spirit than any group of boys I've coached."

"The Warriors, who took their knuckles in a 5-13 season last spring, are up to their eyebrows in lettermen, with no less than 12 returning. Some of those may have to work hard to earn starting assignment since 12 other players, most of them up from last year's fine sophomore class, will be pushing hard to earn regular berths."

Third Base Open
"This has got to be our year," Fedora added as he looked over a roster which showed that GCHS can field a team next week which will include 10 regulars at every position but third base.

Hitting will be the big question mark, he feels. Sluggish last year was not impressive and hitters have not come around as quickly this spring as have the club's fielding and pitching, a normal situation.

However, outfielder Terry

French and second baseman Glen Hoffman were stinging the ball well in batting practice late last week.

Fedora's pitching staff will not have to throw too much hitting practice this year, since GCHS has come up with an automatic pitching machine which the squad has named "Uncle Dudley."

"Dudley" can fire eight strikes out of 10 times, and Warrior hitters were having trouble connecting with the straight stuff he offers. Fresh and blood batted practice hurlers are not out of style yet, however. "Dudley" can't throw a curve ball.

Six Twin Bills
The Warriors' 29-game schedule includes six doubleheaders with non-conference schools, plus 12 Northwestern Conference contests. Thirteen games will be played on the Warrior home diamond in Wilson Park, the first on Saturday, March 30, against Cahokia beginning at noon. The varsity squad will be split for several early games.

Granite City lettermen:
Pitchers—Bill Liernan, Perry Taven, Terry Kofahl and Charles Papp; catcher—Marty LeVault; first base—Al Taylor; second base—Glen Hoffman and Bob Hahn; shortstop—Dick Fetzell and Bob Karadepf; outfield — Terry French, Bob Ketrus, Jim Cavanaugh and Ron Yates.

Prospects—pitchers — Bennie Smith, Pat Harris and John Love; catchers—Chuck Mizerski.

Joe Hauptman and Steve Curvar; infielders — Larry Dillard, Rich Lee and Norm Willard; outfielders — Joe Fanning, Carl Yates and Jim Warren.

Madison Khoury League Meeting Set Wednesday

The first 1963 organizational meeting of the Madison Lions club Khoury baseball league will be held at 7:30 p.m. Wednesday at the Sportsman's club in Madison, League Commissioner Austin Lewis said today.

Managers and coaches of previous participating teams, plus persons interested in becoming coaches or managers, should attend, Lewis said. The league is in need of additional managers and coaches, he added.

The agenda of Wednesday's meeting will include a discussion of plans to enlarge the league to include teams from Venice, Charles Simons, recreation director for the Venice park district, has indicated that Venice teams would like to participate this season, Lewis said.

The Lions' program had 17 participating teams in four age groups in 1962. This year's goal is 25.

Six Hurt In Five Auto Accidents During Weekend

Six persons were injured, none seriously, in five of 16 traffic accidents involving Quad-City residents during the weekend.

Two Children Hurt

Two small youngsters were hurt Saturday afternoon in a two-car collision at 20th and Nash streets. Treated at the hospital for facial injuries were Harold Zellin Jr., six, and Randy Zellin, three.

Police said they were riding in an auto driven by their mother, Mrs. Janet Zellin, who was going east, when an eastbound auto driven by Earl Phelps, 50, of 4808 Warnock avenue, turned in front of them. Another youngster, Mary Zellin, four, escaped injury.

Crosses Highway, Hits Pole
Robert C. Jones, 22, an Army Depot soldier, suffered a slight injury to the back at 4:10 a.m. Saturday when his northbound car went out of control on a curve of Illinois Route Three and struck a utility pole 200 feet north of the Higgins highline on South Fourth street, Venice.

The pole was broken in the crash, police said. The front of the auto was extensively damaged, and the back window of the car was shattered. The vehicle was towed to a garage.

Officers said the auto crossed the roadway before hitting the pole on the west side of Route Three. Booked at 8 a.m. Saturday on three charges, Jones was fined that day $5 and costs on careless driving, cost on property destruction and costs on having no state auto license.

Driver Hurt Slightly

Earl Grube, 34, of 2900 Dogwood drive was taken by ambulance Saturday afternoon at 1:10 a.m. Saturday for treatment of a cut on the forehead suffered in a collision of southbound autos on Madison avenue at Sixth street, Madison. He was released from the hospital.

The collision damaged the left front of Grube's car and the right rear of an auto driven by Pfc. Mel R. Williams, Granite City Army Depot, who had halted for a traffic light.

Hints For Filing Initial Claim For Social Security

Ralph Brasher, district manager of the East St. Louis Social Security office, announced that the Social Security Administration is constantly striving to cut the time elapsing between the filing of the initial claim and the payment to the beneficiary.

The biggest cause for delays is the inability of the claimant to furnish proper proof of age. Brasher stated that various types of documents are acceptable.

Among them are birth records, baptismal and confirmation certificates, insurance policies, marriage licenses, family bibles, military records, school records, employment records, passports, etc.

Claimants are advised to bring with them a document proving their age at the time they visit the social security office to file their claim. This will expedite matters immensely as claims properly completed on the initial visit can be forwarded to the Payment Center within four days after filing.

Brasher also advised potential claimants who are contemplating filing for benefits in the near future to drop in and show the proof of age they have available. These proofs will be examined and the claimant can be advised if they will be acceptable.

The East St. Louis district office, located at 435 Missouri avenue, is open Monday through Friday during the hours of 8:45 a.m. and 4:45 p.m.

Sheriff To Cite Bars To Liquor Commission

The sheriff's office said today that reports on two Mitchell area taverns will be submitted to the liquor commission for possible action. They were found open after legal closing hours Saturday though deputies said there was no evidence to justify warrants.

No food or drinks were visible, the deputies said, but the operators claimed they were serving food and had pizza in the oven.

Amendment Sought To Set Succession In Case Of Attack

(Special from Springfield)

A state constitutional amendment to provide for succession in state and local governments in case of a nuclear attack was offered in the House of the General Assembly last week. Chief author was Rep. Ralph T. Smith, Alton attorney and House Republican whip.

On the amendment with Representative Smith was Rep. John Touby, Chicago Democratic House whip. The measure which would require the full two-thirds approval of each legislative branch, would authorize the Assembly to provide for succession to the powers and duties of public officers in periods of emergency to insure continuity of governmental operation.

The amendment provides in periods of emergency "resulting from disasters caused by enemy attacks (the legislature) shall have the power and the immediate duty to provide for prompt and temporary succession (and) to adopt such other measures as may be necessary and proper for the maintenance of the government."

Plan Hunting Season Changes

Reps. James Holloway (D-Spartanburg) and Charles B. Lawrence (D-Venice) were among sponsors of a series of House bills last week to change some dates of Illinois hunting seasons and to bolster enforcement powers of the State Conservation Department.

Two changes involve pheasants and deer hunting and the taking of turtles and muskrats.

The pheasant season would be changed to start Nov. 10 and end Dec. 15, and for gun deer season would be changed from Oct. 1 to Oct. 31 and for gun deer season would be changed from Nov. 1 to Dec. 31. Also provided in the bills is a combined season for ten days in instead of six.

The crayfish change would prohibit nonresidents of the state from taking turtles or crayfish within Illinois and tighten regulations for the transportation and sale of fish. Another bill would strengthen penalties for impoundment of a state game warden or to obstruct a warden in performance of his duties. The bills were sent to the House Game and Fish Committee.

Rep. Paul Powell (D-Vienna) was principal author of a bill last week to provide that the Illinois Public Aid Commission shall provide social welfare services including guidance, counseling, training and instruction to assist persons in avoiding dependency or social maladjustment and increasing their capacity for self-support.

The state police chauffeur-body guard for Illinois governors would have the rank and pay of a state police lieutenant under legislation offered this week by Rep. Stuart J. Taylor (D-Troy) and L. C. Harris (D-Granite City); C. L. McCormick (R-Vienna); and Charles D. Schaefer (D-Nokomis). Governors previous to Gov. Otto Kerner have been served by a state police captain or lieutenant.

Tax Exemption Bill

Another constitutional amendment proposed last week was by Rep. Traynor to authorize the General Assembly to exempt personal property and homesteads of persons 65 or over from taxation. It specifically would exempt a homestead up to a valuation of $500. The proposal was sent to the House Constitutional Amendments committee.

Semi-annual licenses for trucks would be authorized under bills offered by Sen. Paul Ziegler (D-Carmi) and Rep. Paul Powell (D-Vienna) and Ralph D. Smith (R-Alton). The measures, said to have the approval of Secretary of State Carpenter, would allow payment of half the annual fee for the first set of plates with the trucker required to post a bond for the second half.

Sen. Ziegler said the proposal, if enacted into law, would benefit truckers, many of whom pay high fees, some up to more than $1100 a year. An extra fee of $5 for two sets of plates, Ziegler said, would bring in several hundred thousand dollars in extra revenue as plates are not more than $1 a set. State and federal bonds would be required to be posted as security for the second payment.

Dairy Products Commission

Reps. C. L. McCormick (R-Vienna) and Ralph Smith (R-Alton) were cosponsors on a bill last week to establish a Dairy Products Commission to regulate the sale of dairy products. It provides for licensing of persons in the dairy products industry, that commission employees be under the state treasury, to set and collect appropriate fees for commission expenses.

Rep. Ralph Smith also was author of a bill to transfer $30,000 appropriated to the office of Secretary of State for construction services in connection with maintenance of the new $2 million state museum building after completion of construction of the museum, to use for purchase of commodities needed in maintenance of the museum.

Rep. Smith also presented a bill to amend the Illinois Motor Carrier Property Act to provide the Illinois Commerce Commission may enter into reciprocity agreements exempting trucks and vehicles or tractors of motor carriers licensed in other states from renewal fees. It was referred to the House Motor Vehicles Committee.

Another House proposal by Smith would give the State Department of Public Works and Buildings authority to adopt rules to provide greater size or weight schedules for vehicles other than those prescribed by statute where the Bureau of Public Roads or the American Association of State Highway Officials adopts such excess size and weight limitations.

Other new legislation by members from south central and southern Illinois this week included:

By Rep. McCormick, requires highway commissioners to include in their annual report the determined or estimated amount owing to each creditor named in the report and provides a highway commissioner who fails to include such information shall be guilty of a misdemeanor; By Rep. AMERICAN CANCER SOCIETY contribution is presented to Mrs. Jesse Ditch, Madison campaign chairman, by William Price, a union representative on the Employees' Welfare Board, Dow Metal Products Corp. At left is W. A. Kruegel, Dow purchasing agent and a management representative to the board, and at right is Mrs. Paul Edmonds, Quad-Cities chairman of the Cancer Society's April fund raising campaign.

Dow Employees Make Cancer Contribution

The American Cancer Society's Quad-Cities fund drive has received an early boost by a $1020 contribution from employees of the Dow Metal Products Corp., Madison.

The gift was from the Dow Employees' Welfare Board, which handles the firm's "continuous giving program." A Dow spokesman said about 80% of the employees contribute to the program through payroll deductions.

A unique feature of the Dow plan is that employees are allowed to designate specifically where their contributions will go. Ten per cent of those contributing had designated the Cancer Society, the spokesman said.

The program is handled by a six-member board, consisting of three members from management and three from labor. The board reviews all requests for aid.

The Cancer Society contribution was received by Mrs. Jesse Ditch, Madison campaign chairman, and Mrs. Paul Edmonds, Quad-Cities chairman of the Cancer Society's April fund raising campaign.
